

It's a story about two friends, one of them is a human and the other is a dog Mudge, they used to do a special and different adventure day by day, the friendship that lie Henri and his huge dog Mudge make them be always ready to do anything together, they were friends when Henri felt himself alone cause of he hadn't brothers, but Mudge filled the empty in the life of Henri, and the story explains the funny live with the good friend.